

9 Environments of You

9 Environments of You

The 9 Environments of YOU - originally created by Thomas Leonard - is a powerful way to see and design the world around you. We know that humans are always adapting to the world around them while at the same time unconsciously creating the world as a reflection of themselves.

Now you will design the world around you so that you become who you desire to be AND evolve in unexpected often delightful ways!

Transformation from Willpower to World Power

History is full of stories of individuals who achieved greatness by overcoming the environment. Through these stories we get the idea that the environment is something to be overcome through willpower. While this is possible, it is NOT efficient!

MOST of the time, the environment wins and the individual does not. World Power means that you design an environment with the just the right balance of support and challenge for you to grow and get results.

It means that you see yourself as part of the environment and play with it and within it.

The Environment Always Wins

This is the provocative mantra of this life- changing concept. Without significant environmental design, no process of change is sustainable. You may have noticed that most of the time when you do a change oriented program, shortly after you end up back to the way you have always been. This is because when you go back home you adapt back to the environment that was a reflection of who you were.

For sustainable success, always design your 9 Environments to be a picture of your next evolution.
