

Alex Mandossian's Background

Since 1993, Alex Mandossian generated nearly $400 million in sales and profits for his marketing students, clients and joint venture partners on five continents.

His marketing strategies helped convert his personal annual income in 2001 into a monthly income by 2003 and an hourly by 2006 (16 times). And by 2007, his proven virtual enrollment strategies helped him generate $1.2 million in less than 29 minutes.

Alex is acknowledged by his colleagues as the Warren Buffet of the Internet because of his unique ability to make money for his students and joint venture partners.

He has shared the stage with diverse leaders such as Sir Richard Branson, Harvey Mackay, Donald Trump, Tony Robbins, Robert Kiyosaki, Suze Ormand, Mikhail Gorbachev, and His Holiness the Dalai Lama.

As a Master “Virtual Presenter” with over 22,000 hours of training experience since 1989, Alex’s lifetime goal (with his colleague, Jack Canfield) is to influence training one million other trainers by his 77th birthday.
